NOTES:

Known Sphere Of Operation: Romulan-Klingon Border

Data Reliability: C

Major Data Source: Romulan Sector Intelligence

The Invulnerable Vengeance served exclusively along the Romulan-Klingon border for over 50 years. In 2368, the vessel was sold to Orion interests in the Triangle fully armed with instructions to not attack Romulan interests. Records indicate that in 2363, the Orions ignored these instructions, attacking a Barolian vessel within the Triangle that was bound for Romulan space. Three weeks later, the ship was discovered by MCA forces on a collision course with Chaniviev Prime. While the crew was still alive, the controls were locked and the engineering compartment highly irradiated and uninhabitable. Shortly after discovering the ship, a cloaked Romulan scout, dispatched to monitor the ships progress, warned the MCA vessels to not interfere. Fearing retribution from the Romulans, the MCA commander did not rescue the crew and left the Orions to their fate. Two days later, the Vengeance slowly disintegrated when it's shields failed. To this day, the Romulans refuse to interact with the Orion family that purchased the Vengeance.
