NOTES:

Known Sphere Of Operation: Romulan-Klingon border; Cardassian border

Data Reliability: D

Major Data Source: Romulan Sector Intelligence

The Storm of Retribution conducted over a dozen deep-penetration raids into Klingon territory during it's early service years. In 2325, her torpedo was upgraded to provide better first-strike capability. In 2359, her torpedo was again upgraded as were her shields.

In 2374, she was assigned to a strike force in anticipation of the Romulan entry into the Dominion War. In 2375 she was damaged in an engagement with Cardassian forces and scuttled.
