The eight vessels given to the Loyal State Alliance of the MCA were originally gifted fully functionally; however, MCA leadership immediately decided to upgrade the vessels, adding torpedo launchers and efficient shield systems.

Both the Mk I and Mk II would serve over 30 years during the civil war. Of the four Mk Is fielded, 2 were destroyed by rebel forces and 1 was scrapped after engaging a Klingon scout. The final operational model was sold in 2310. Of the four Mk IIs fielded, 2 were destroyed by rebel forces, 1 was damaged and sold for scrap and 1 disappeared. It remains unknown if the vessel was destroyed, captured or simply defected.
